WE, THE CLASS OF 1967,

REFLECT . . .

PROLOGUE

And now it is time for reflecting. Our high school years have fleetingly passed by, never to return. All we can do is remember, reliving the successes and shortcomings of each year.

There are times in every person's life when the reflections of one's past converge into the anticipation of one's future—times of disappointment, despair, and decision. At times like these, the difficulties of the moment compel one to "relive" the joys of the past. But memories fade; the moments preserved on these pages will remain, awaiting these times of "reliving." As seniors we record these moments, not solely for our own benefit, but for the benefit of all who are willing to reflect with us.

Now, as the present slips by and the future comes upon us, may we always be conscious of the values of the past—through our reflections . . .

DEDICATION

MR. HARRY A. SMITH

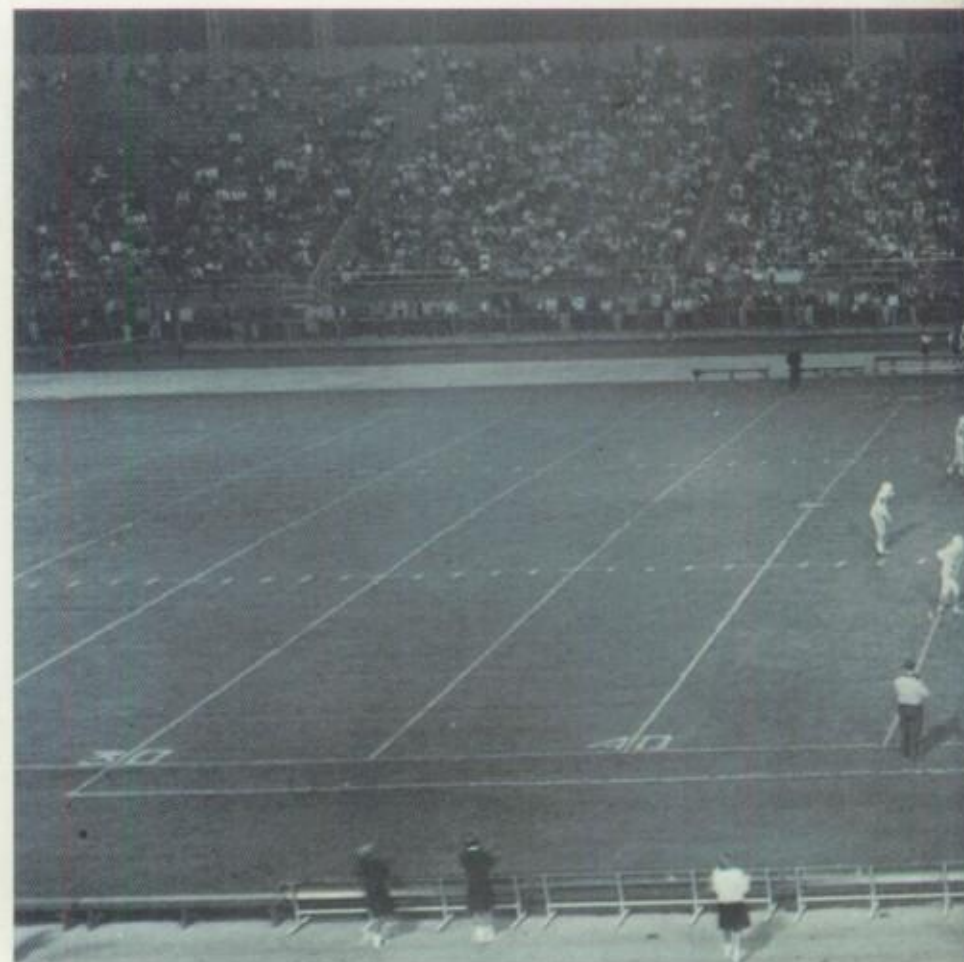

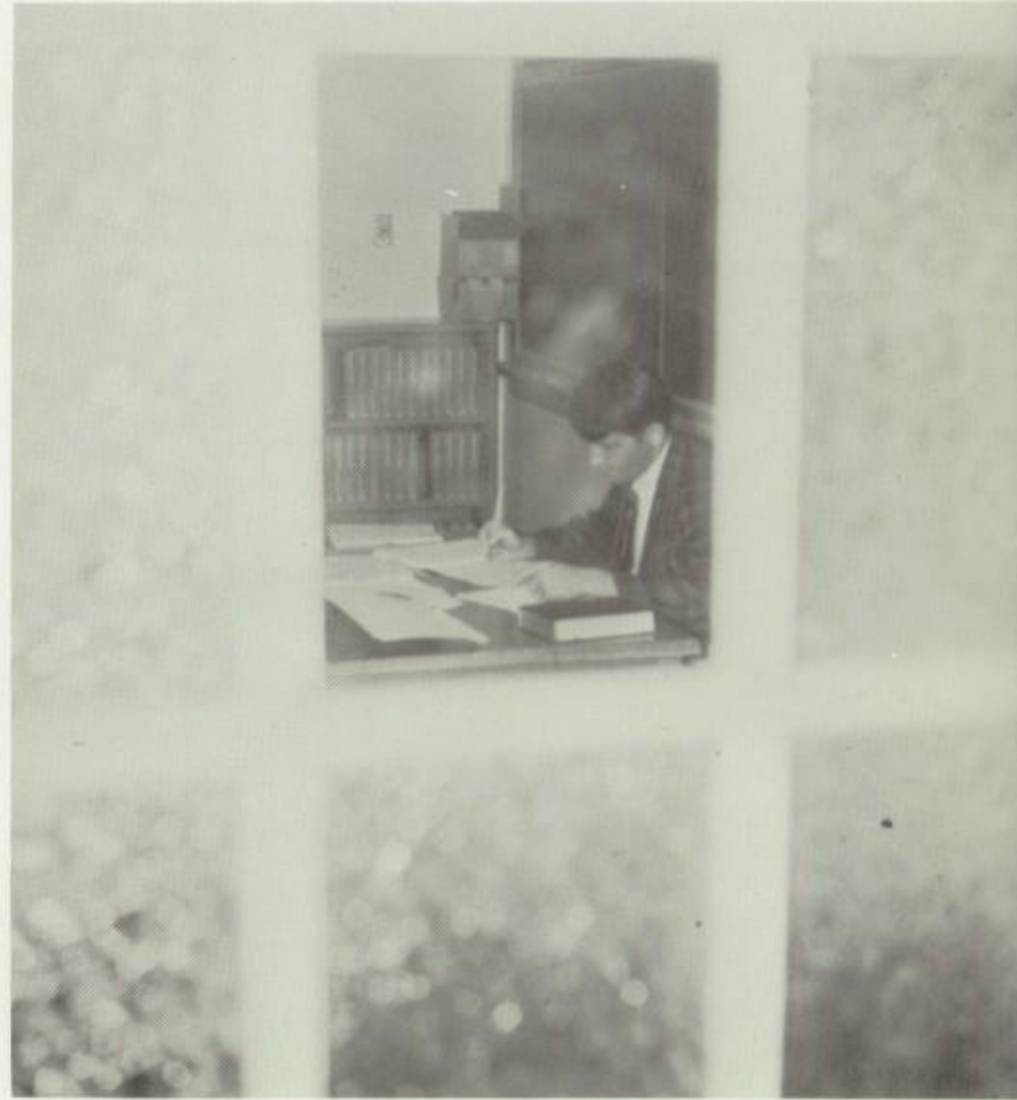

As seniors, we dedicate this book to one who, through the years has done much for, not only our class, but for countless classes before us. When he came to PHS thirty years ago, Mr. Smith had the task of originating a Business Course. It is apparent today that he was very successful in this undertaking.

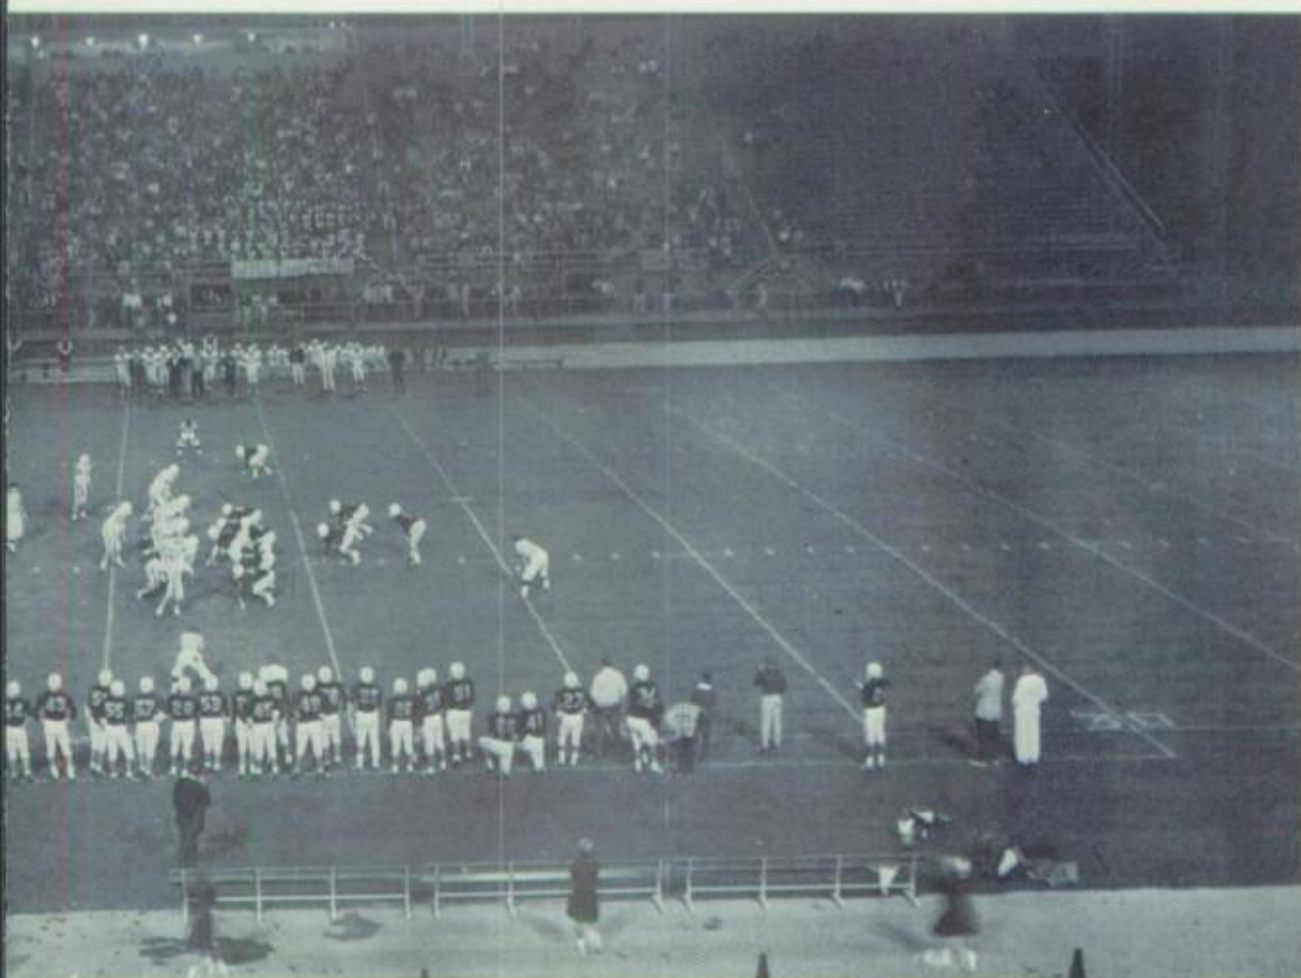

His great concern for the welfare of the students is immediately evident in the scope of his accomplishments. At present he is a dedicated member of the faculty, heading the Business Education Department. As Director of Student Activities, he is advisor to High Times staff and the Palm Echo staff and is a member of the School Athletic Committee. He is also treasurer of the Jr.-Sr. High School Fund, co-advisor of the Business Education Club, and coordinates the typing and duplicating of all the programmes for the functions at PHS.

We, the students of PHS, particularly the class of 1967, wish to express our sincere appreciation to one who has done so much for all.

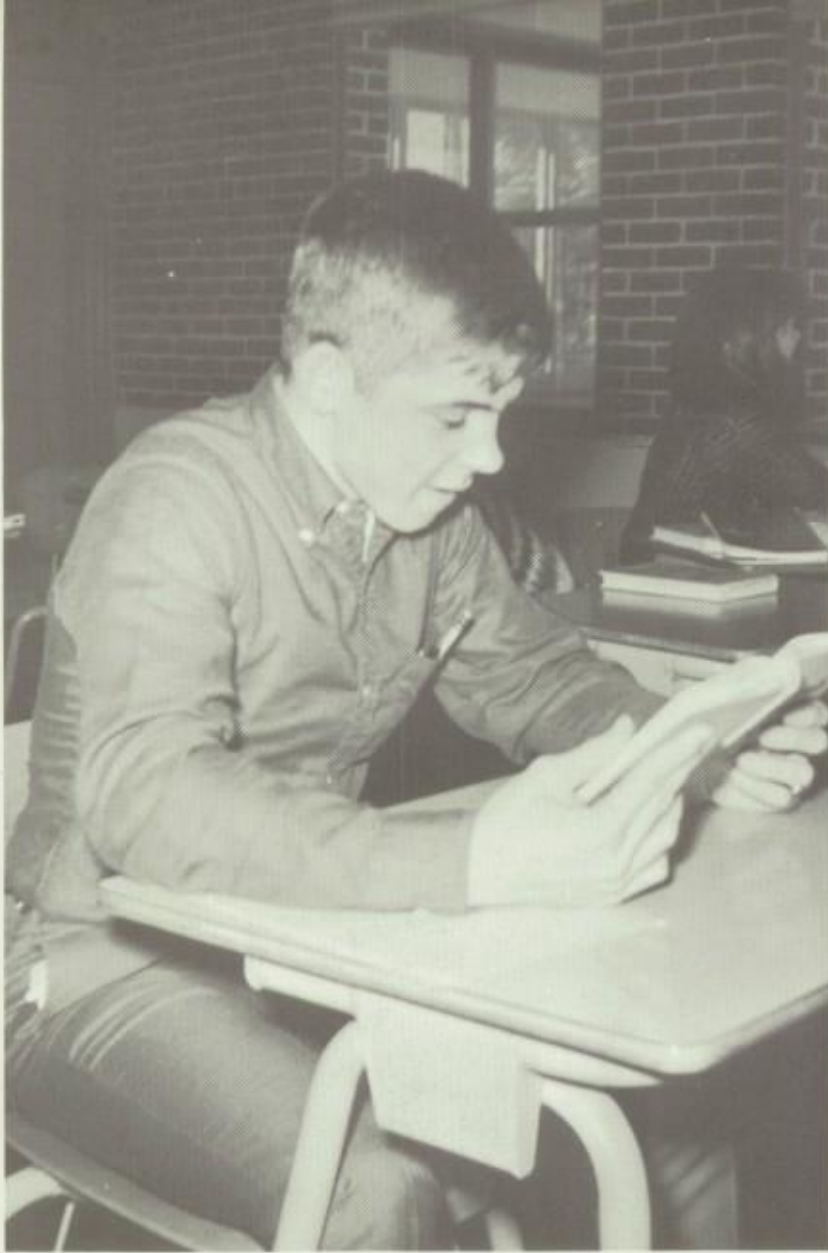

ACTIVITIES REFLECT
MANY FACETS OF P.H.S.

67

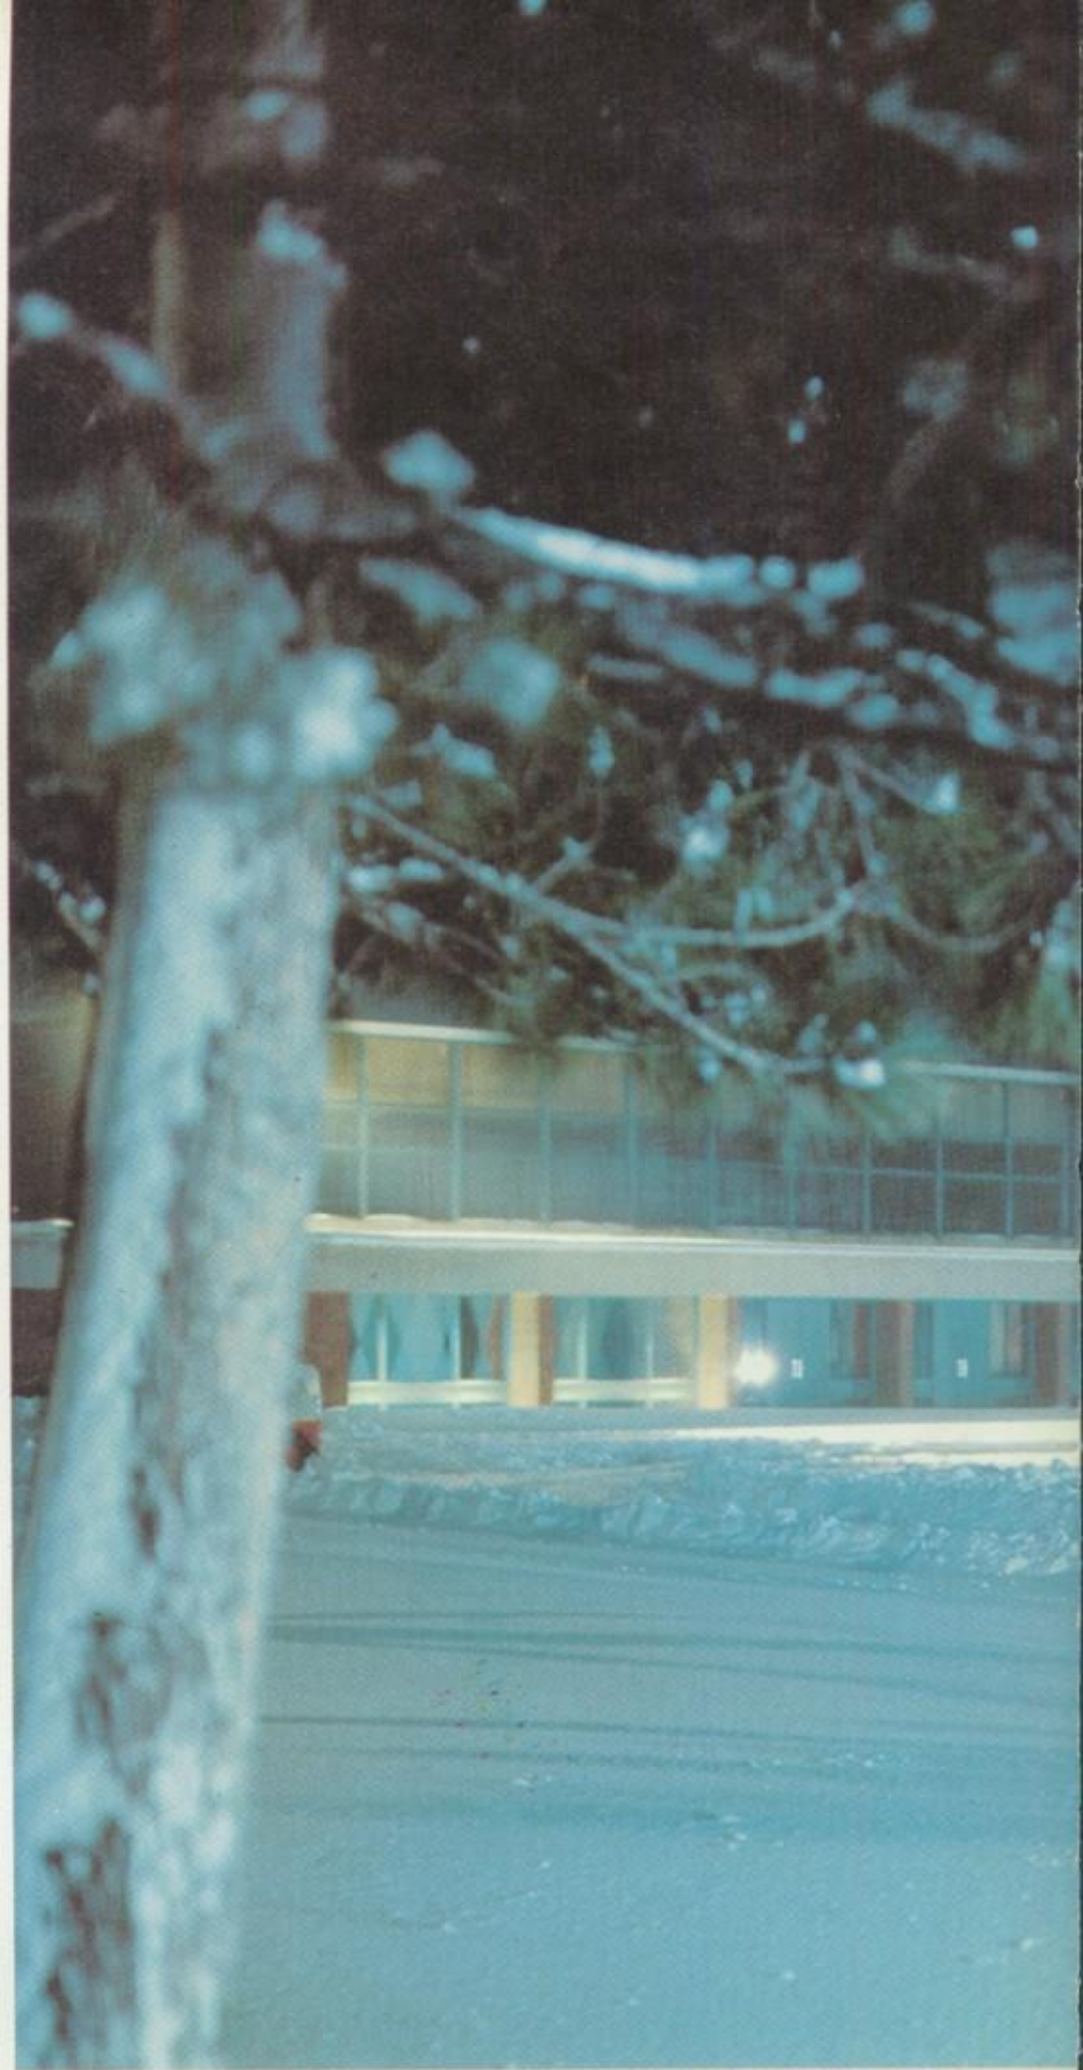

The students of PHS are involved in a variety of activities and interests. In these activities we show many feelings which reflect on our complexities as individuals.

REFLECTIONS ON THE MOODS THAT MAKE US PHS

School life develops the ability to work as a member of a group, as well as providing many opportunities for enjoyable moments spent with fellow students. These aspects of PHS are influential in helping us become well-rounded adults.

SCHOOL BOARD ATTENDS TO NEEDS OF THE SCHOOL

The School Board is one of the most valuable parts of the administration. It is they who make sure that the education provided for us is of the highest standard. Because the members of the Board are engaged in a variety of professions and interests, their decisions are made for the welfare of the students and the community.

The School Board approves the annual budget—which covers such necessary items as heat, equipment, and supplies—and appropriates money for the many various activities of the students.

They concern themselves with both the welfare of present students and that of future students. This interest in the needs of the community, in terms of education, is reflected in their plans for the future enlargement of the school system.

We, the class of 1967, wish to express our sincere thanks to the School Board and Administration for providing the many educational opportunities existing at Palmyra High School.

As supervising principal, Mr. William H. Bolger has many jobs and responsibilities—not just for the high school, but all Palmyra Area Schools. Acting as the executive officer of the School Board, he carries out their decisions, while keeping them informed as to the present developments in the school system and its future needs.

Mr. Bolger aids in the selection of faculty members, helping to maintain the high teaching standards of PHS. He also sees that the school is provided with sufficient supplies and up-to-date equipment, as well as taking care of all bills encountered through the needs of the schools.

THE ADMINISTRATION SUPERVISES OUR SCHOOL YEAR

One of the major jobs of Mr. Ross W. Watts, principal of the senior high school, is providing the proper atmosphere for the instruction of us, the students of PHS. In order to do this he must have close contact with all the personnel—the faculty, the non-teaching employees, and the students.

Mr. Watts also sets the standard for the kind of environment that exists at PHS. It is he who has the difficult job of maintaining or creating good hall manners and lunch-line procedure for students.

Mr. Stewart V. Schule, assistant senior high principal, is in charge of all attendance records of the students at PHS. Besides this necessary task he is always ready to take over the responsibilities of the principal in the absence of Mr. Watts.

MRS. GERALDINE SINGER

Although not always obvious, the office personnel plays an important role in making our school run smoothly. Their many services include such things as bookkeeping, typing bulletins, operating the public address system, and other various duties. We sincerely appreciate this vital part of our school system.

ENGLISH—BASIS OF AN INTELLIGENT SOCIETY

Certainly, communication is the basis of success in today's society. Through many varied media, such as the reading and appreciation of poetry and literature, and the principles of grammar and vocabulary, the English Department prepares our students for a successful life in the modern world.

MRS. VIOLA PHILLIPS

MISS CAROL J. REINARD

MR. DENNIS E. VAN TASSEL

MRS. LINDA C. GOOD

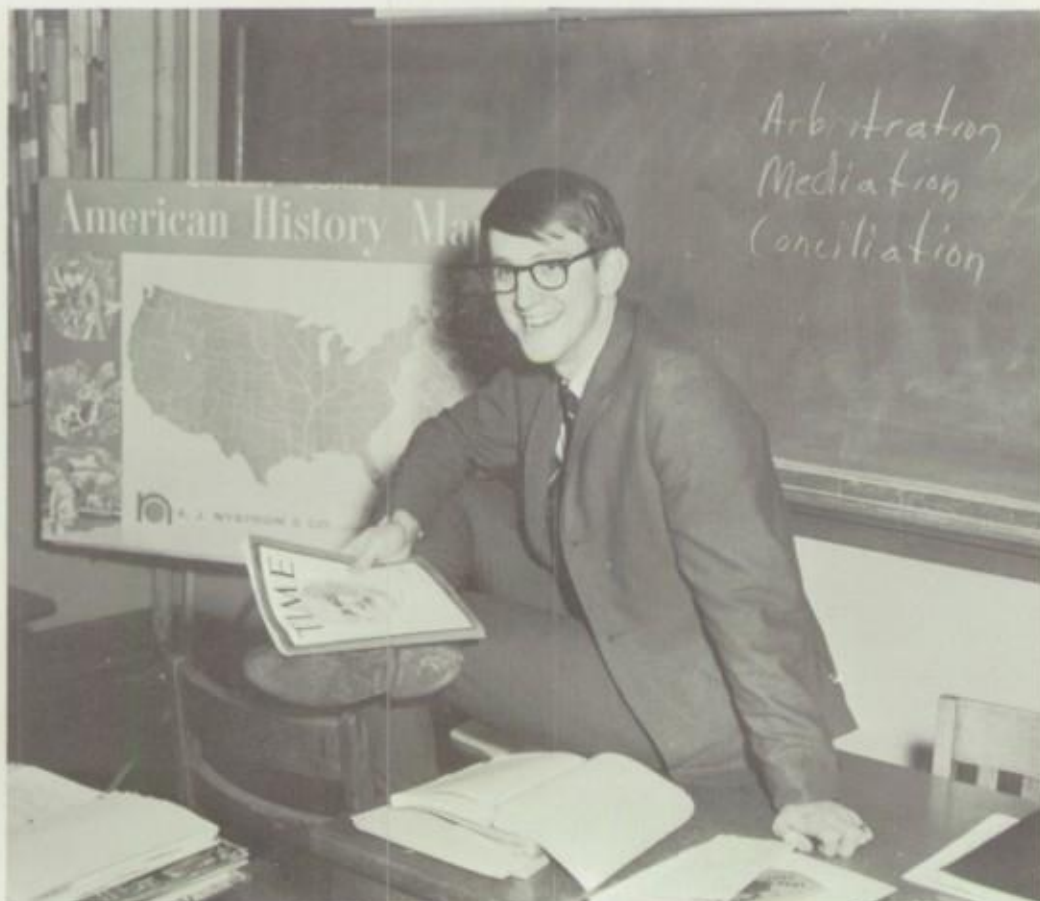

MR. CHARLES A. REED

MR. JAMES L. ALTER, III

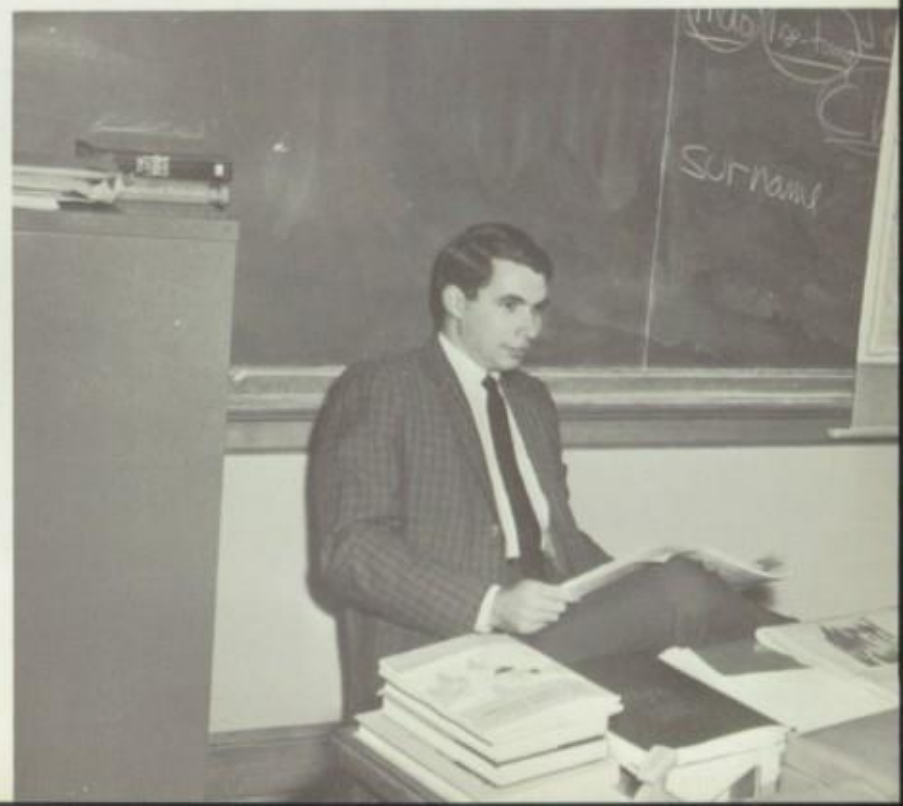

The key to the future is knowledge of the past. Through our various Social Studies courses, we are shown the effect of the past on the present world situation. These courses make us more aware of current happenings and how they concern our own country. The Social Studies courses of PHS prepare us to take our places as responsible citizens in our society.

WE REFLECT ON OUR WORLD

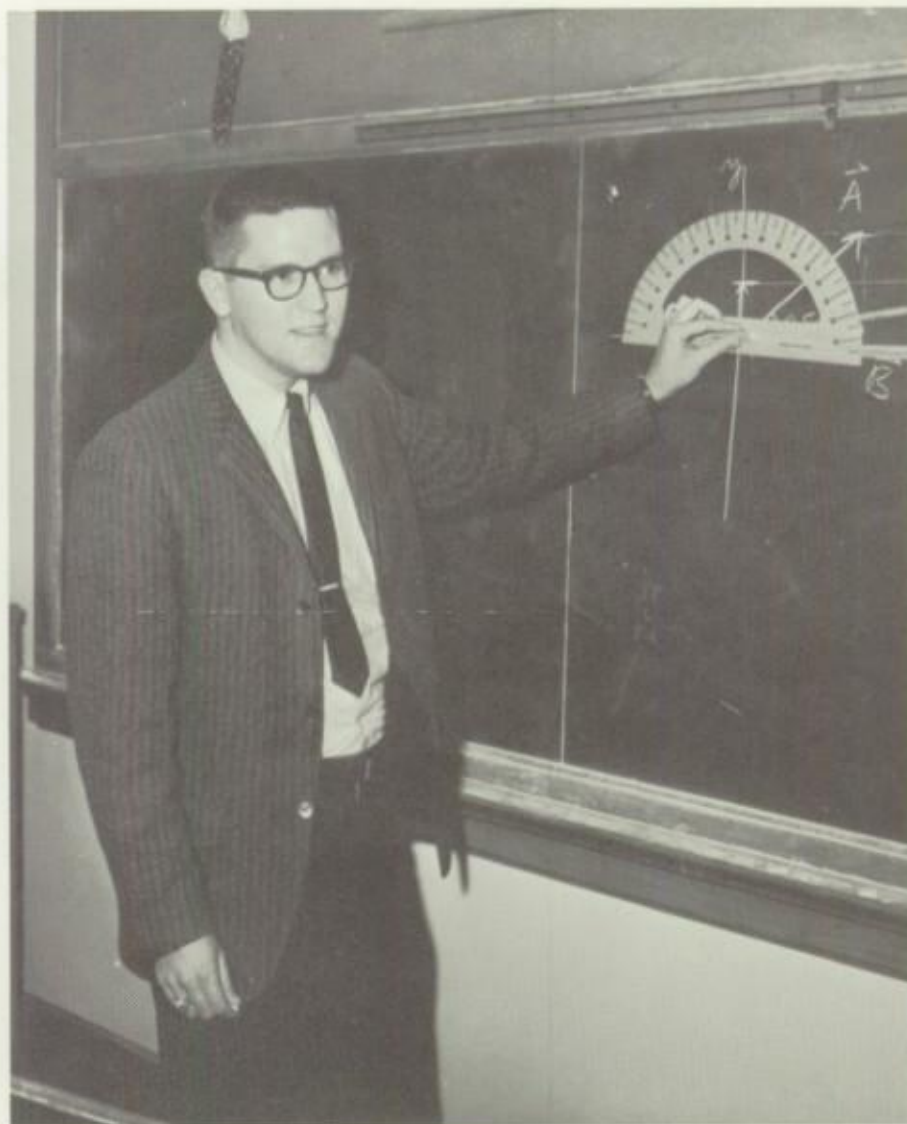

MR. P. TERRY BAKER

MR. GEORGE W. ZIEGLER

MR. STEWART V. SCHULE

MR. FREDERICK S. PRIEBE

INVESTIGATING OUR UNIVERSE

The Science Department at PHS allows the student to choose the type of course he desires. He can learn basic fundamentals in Earth and Physical Science, or branch out into Chemistry and Physics where new principles are taught and opportunities are given to strengthen his ability to reason and think.

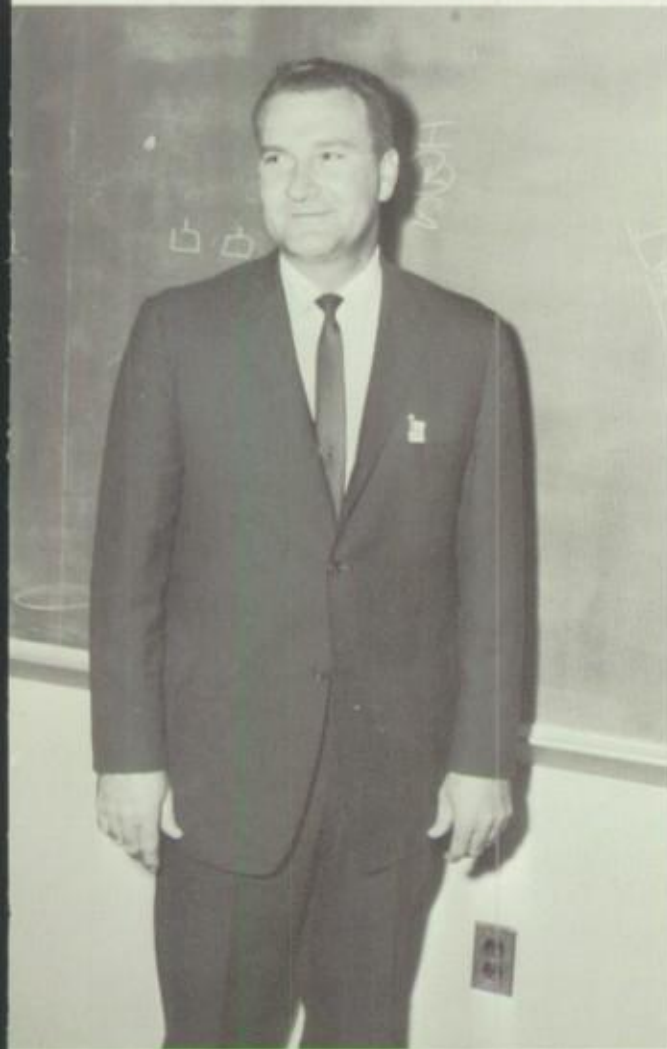

MR. WILLIAM V. HANKINS

MR. DAVID A. MECKLEY

MATH—INTEGRAL PART OF TODAY'S SOCIETY

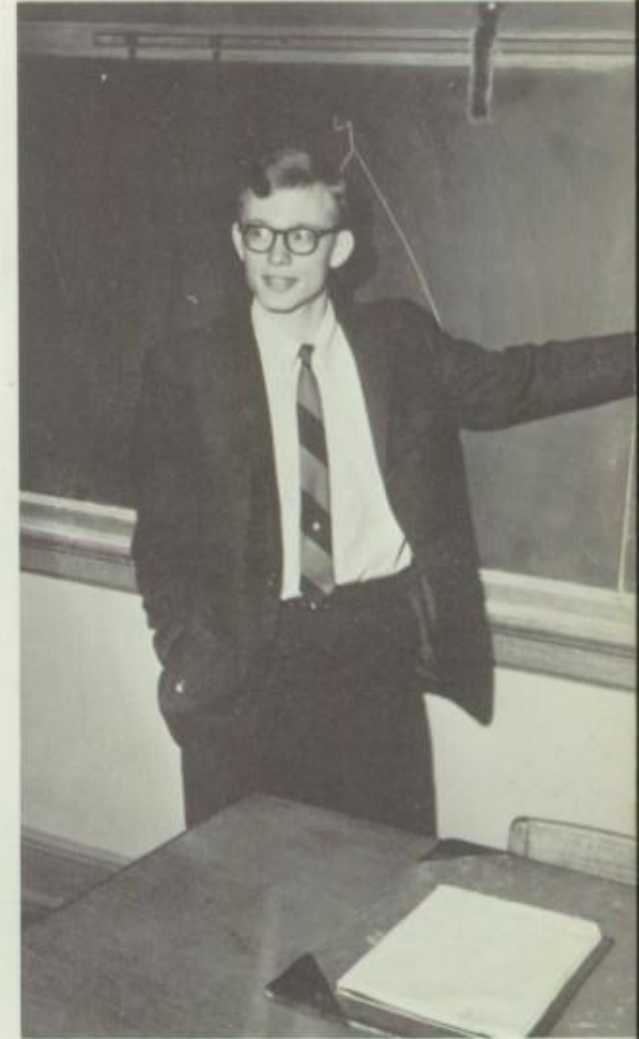

The Mathematics Department has a two-fold purpose in serving the students at Palmyra. It not only prepares the academic student for the higher forms of mathematics he will receive in college, but also provides the other students with the math necessary for every-day living.

MR. JAMES E. MOHR

MR. C. LINDLEY LIGHT

MR. MICHAEL M. BURKETT

WORLD UNDERSTANDING THROUGH LANGUAGES

Through the use of modern teaching devices, the Foreign Language Department has helped to better acquaint us with France and Germany—the people, the customs, and the language itself.

MR. WALTER E. LOY

MRS. CAROLYN PERTUSIO
MISS BONNIE MILLS

MR. HARRY A. SMITH

MRS. CATHERINE SMITH

TAKING OUR PLACE IN A BUSINESS SOCIETY

The Business Education Department does a fine job training students for various occupations in the business world. They are taught fundamentals such as typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping and receive valuable experience in office practice.

MR. JAMES H. LEWIS

MR. ROBERT L. WHITE

INSTILLING DRIVER RESPONSIBILITY

At PHS there are two phases to the driver education instruction. Actual use of the automobile is taught through in-the-car training, and driving rules and safety precautions through classroom instruction.

MR. JACKIE W. MAURER

MR. ROBERT GINGRICH

STRENGTHENING BODY AS WELL AS MIND

PHS is fortunate in having a progressive Physical Education Department which instituted this year a series of coeducational programs. Provided with extensive equipment, we are encouraged to develop our gymnastic skills.

MR. ROGER B. SANDERS

MISS PATRICIA A. SINGISER

HOME ECONOMICS PREPARES US FOR LIFE

In the Home Economics Department, girls learn the art of homemaking. This includes all phases of home life—planning and preparing balanced meals and family relationships, besides the basic homemaking skills.

MRS. ELLEN PHILLIPPY

MRS. JEAN S. BUBB

BUILDING A FOUNDATION FOR FUTURE HOMES

The information and practical skills received through the Industrial Arts Department prove invaluable to the student now and in the future. Previous abilities are developed and new ones are formed in the areas of wood and metal work, drafting and printing.

MR. JOHN A. KARSNITZ

MR. RONALD A. ROYER

IMAGINATION CONVEYED THROUGH FORM

MISS BARBARA S. JEFFRIES

At PHS, we are proud to have an outstanding art department. Under the skillful guidance of Miss Jeffries, students are instructed in the many facets of art, including painting—both oil and water color, wood carving, sculpturing, and copper enameling. Throughout the year, art students are given opportunities to display their creative talents by decorating for various school activities.

MUSIC— UNIVERSAL LANGUAGE

The Music Department enables students to express themselves through both instrumental and vocal music. Then, after weeks of rehearsing, the musical groups are provided with the opportunity to perform in public.

MRS. PHYLLIS COBELLO

MR. BRUCE W.
WEAVER

MR. ROBERT R.
HARTMAN

MISS RACHEL R. NOLL

The Guidance Office is set up to aid students with difficulties arising during the year. Mr. Ritchey counsels students, helps to select their courses of study, and provides information about institutions of higher learning.

SPECIAL SKILLS FOR INDIVIDUALS

Miss Light does a fine job in preparing the special students with the useful skills necessary for a successful future. Her patience and imagination are indispensable aids in helping those who often find learning difficult.

MISS FAITHE LIGHT

THE KEY TO LEARNING

The modern library of PHS is maintained by the industrious efforts of Miss Noll. Although not always noticeable, she keeps the shelves full of the best recent books and is constantly improving the resource materials for the students' needs.

LED THROUGH THE YEARS

MR. GEORGE O. RITCHEY

WHO CARES FOR OUR ILLS

The role of the school nurse has many facets. Besides administering to the needs of students who have become ill or are involved in accidents during school hours, she conducts ear and eye examinations and keeps student health records.

IN MEMORIAM

In the midst of the summer heat
He took her away,
And millions of tears were weeped,
And many prayers were prayed.

We questioned His will at first.
How could He be so cruel?
To take her without warning
From her life at home and school.

But death isn't cruel or dim;
We never should cry,
For now she's at peace with Him
In His kingdom in the sky.

We thank God for giving us
Her friendship for awhile.
She must have been an angel,
For she had the fairness of a child.

So as upon life's path we tread
We realize we can't pretend;
For it just happened that Sandy led
To where we all shall meet in the end.

Why was I blessed with these seniors?

Little Boy Blue come blow your horn!

Writing a new American Constitution, Gina?

Get your foot stuck in the bathroom door, Jay?

Sharon, I'd rather do it myself!

It might help if you grunt!

While the teacher's away the students will play.

It's all in a hard day's work! Nothing to it.

Boy, that cafeteria food is good!

No fighting girls!

I think I'm STUCK!

I wonder if Michaelangelo started this way?

Who says beauty isn't everything?

Come into my parlor, Tom.

Didn't think I'd make it, huh gang!

Either you take one of me or else!

Say a-a-a-a-h!

Come on Timothy, or we'll be late.

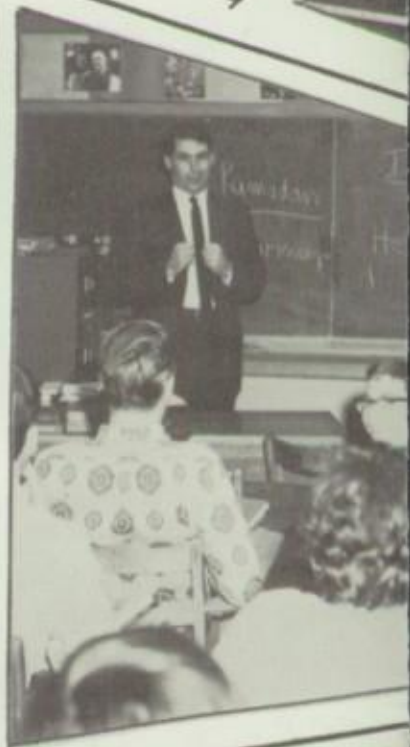

Chalk does taste good when your hungry, Forrest!

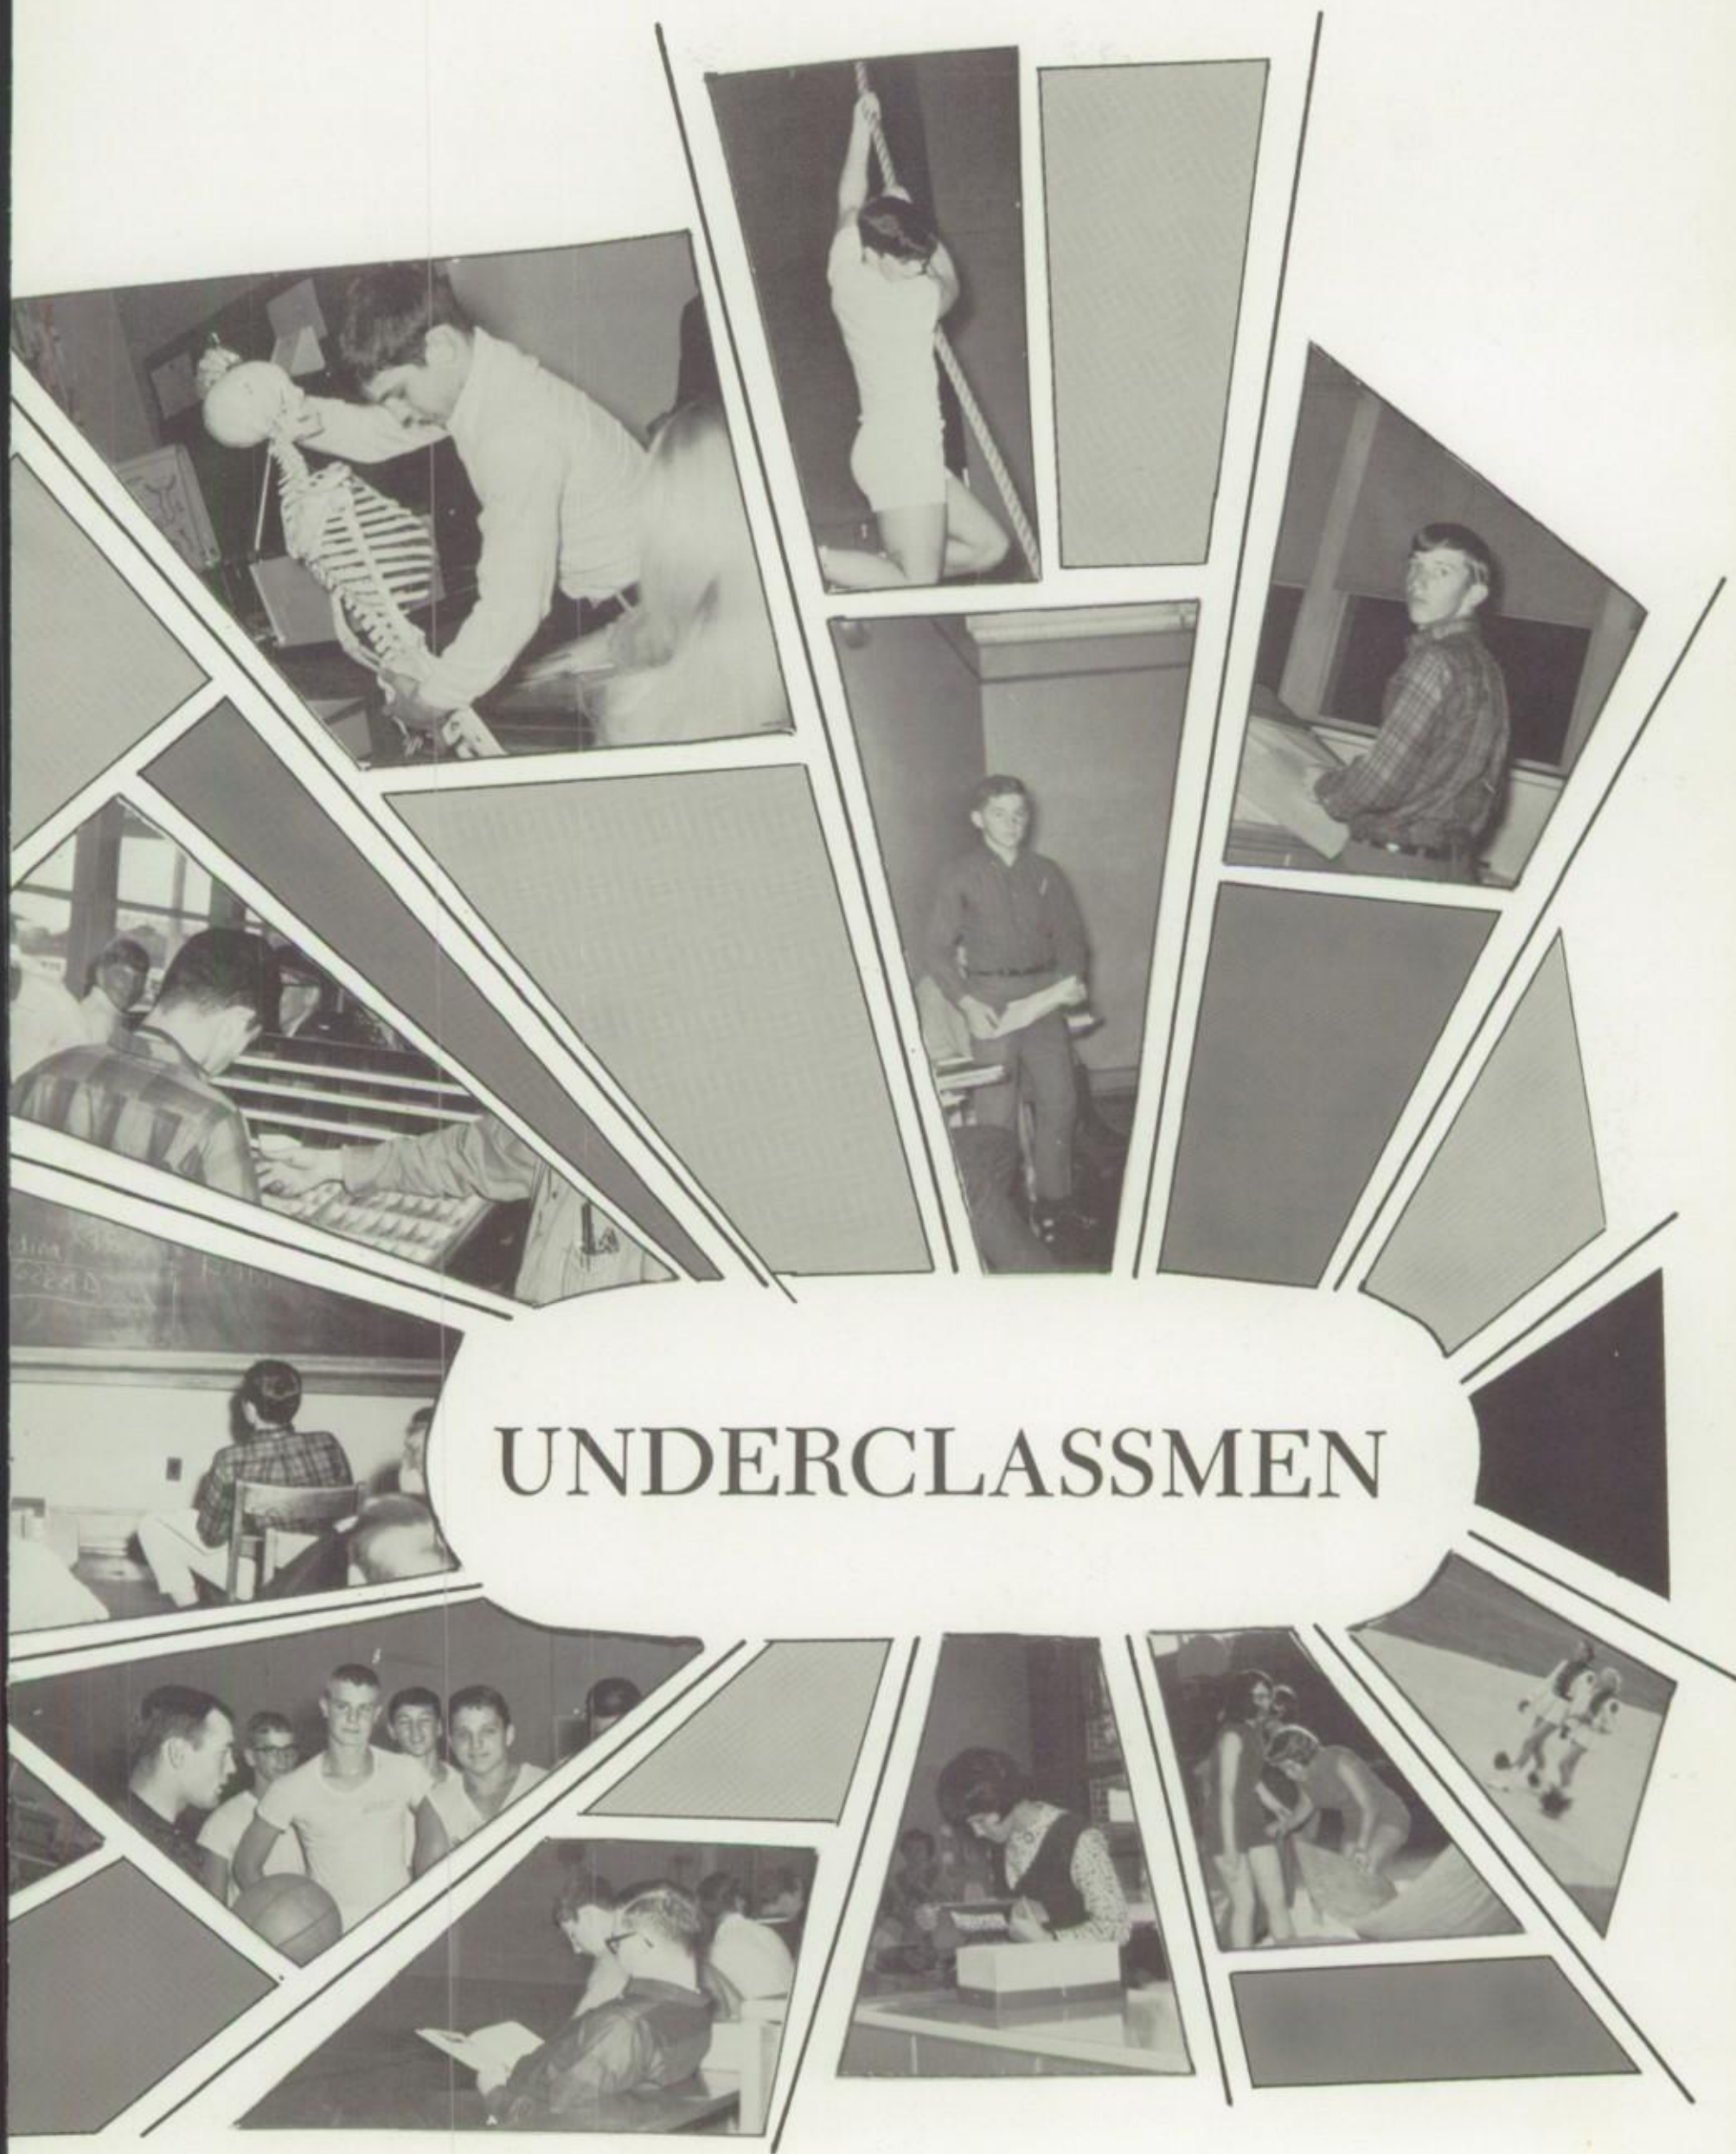

Long hair would do something for you, Paul.

With this enthusiasm how can we lose?

A collage of black and white photographs showing students in various school settings, arranged around a central oval containing the text "JUNIOR HIGH". The photos depict students in a library, working at desks, playing board games, and interacting with each other. The central text is in a serif font, and the entire page has a sunburst-like border made of geometric shapes.

JUNIOR HIGH

MR. DAVID R. APPLEBY

PRINCIPAL

The junior high faculty has the difficult task of building upon the foundations developed in elementary school in order to prepare the students for the more difficult courses offered in high school. The faculty strives to instill interest in the courses taught, as well as develop scholastic achievement. The teachers, constantly searching for better ways to present the subjects, are going to initiate group teaching in the junior high next fall. This faculty has devoted its various talents in order to strengthen the wide variety of special interests of the students.

This is the third year of the separate administrations for the junior and senior high schools. Many changes have come about in both schools since this separation, and the independence of the junior high has been particularly strengthened. The junior high library is a good example of this change. The facilities of this library are constantly expanding and may soon be as extensive as those found in the senior high.

GUIDANCE COUNSELOR

This is also the third anniversary of the junior high student council. It has been very successful in these three years and has accomplished much. With the help of the student council, the junior high now has display cases which are kept filled with the creations of the junior high art students. The student council also has a water cooler to its credit. Purchased with money in the student council treasury, the cooler was installed by the school in the junior high building this fall.

The junior high also has more extensive sports. It now boasts its own football, basketball, wrestling, and track teams. These add to the continuity of the sports program.

Another visible facet of junior high independence is their newspaper, published this year for the first time and called the TEEN TIMES.

REFLECTIONS

NEW DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS ELECTED

MR. JAMES E. MOHR

This year Mr. James Mohr became director of athletics at P.H.S. As some of his duties he coordinates the scheduling for all the interscholastic sports and makes arrangements for officials of these games. Besides this he is a member of the school athletic committee which sets the athletic policy of P.H.S. Mr. Mohr has been on the teaching staff for sixteen years. During this time he has coached track and basketball and is currently coaching football and baseball.

FOOTBALL SUFFERS UNDER INJURIES

The Palmyra Palms, coached by Ray Erney, posted a 3-7 season. This year's team was handicapped throughout the season by many costly injuries. Despite these injuries, the Palms still managed to win three games and stay close in most of the others. The season was highlighted by a Homecoming Day victory over rival Cumberland Valley. With many lettermen returning, the Palms hope to have a successful team in the future.

HEAD COACH: Mr. Ray Erney

Ray Erney, in his second year as the Palm's head coach, was a leader in the true sense of the word and earned the respect of every player on the team. Through coach Erney, every boy that went on the field in August, came off the field a man in November.

CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM REFLECTS PAST EXPERIENCE

The Palmyra Cross-Country team, under the able coaching of Carl Scrinieri, continued to show improvement this year. The absence of interest in the sport again caused the Palms to lack the depth that is needed to win meets. However, this did not discourage our team from making a fine showing. The Palms won three meets, the most a cross-country team has had in the sport's brief history at our school. With many outstanding runners returning, the outlook for cross-country at Palmyra seems to be bright.

Senior Team Members and Coach: Larry Fureman, Edward Kaylor, Mr. Carl Scrinieri, Coach; Bob Koch, Forrest Henriksen.

NEW COACH SPARKS PALM IMPROVEMENT

CAPTAINS: GARY MAULFAIR AND BOB SHIRK

The Palmyra Palms, under the direction of new coach Mr. Ken Hendricks, demonstrated a new style of basketball this season. This new style of ball was characterized by exciting runs and press tactics. The team was hampered by a lack of interest, but this did not discourage the boys from making a fine showing throughout the season. The Palms registered six victories including important wins over archrivals Annville-Cleona and Hershey. They also defeated Milton Hershey twice in well-played games. Two members of the squad, Gary Maulfair and Robert Shirk, were selected for the all-county teams.

If the high spirit of the team continues, Palmyra can look for a fine future in basketball.

WRESTLING INCREASES IN POPULARITY AT PHS

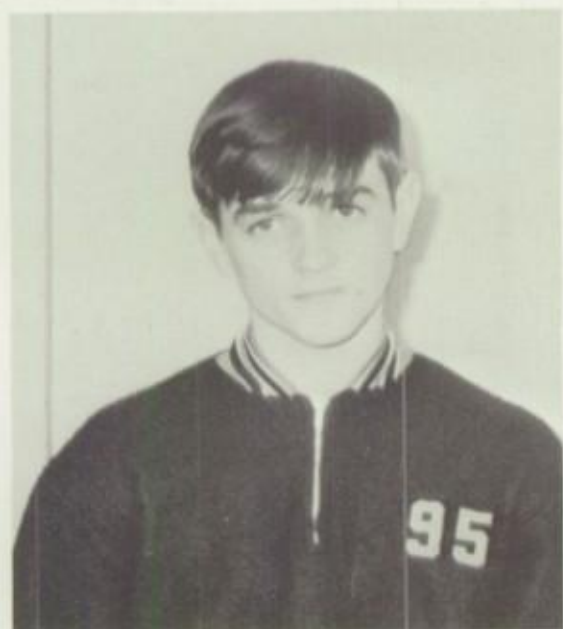

Asst. Coach: Mr. James Lewis, Coach: Mr. Roger Sanders

The Palmyra wrestling team, under head coach Mr. Roger Sanders, experienced its best season this year. Through hard work and patience, the Palms improved steadily each week. The season was climaxed by impressive wins over rivals, Hershey and Middletown. The season was also marked by many outstanding individual performances by Palm wrestlers. With many experienced boys returning next year, the future looks bright for wrestling.

BASEBALL TEAM WORKS FOR TITLE

Hopes for a Lebanon County Conference championship slipped through our fingers as we lost a deciding game to Annville-Cleona. Starting out with four conference losses, we improved greatly to win the next six games with Tom Gible pitching a no-hitter. A win in the last game with Annville-Cleona would have made us tie for first place with Northern Lebanon. As it was we finished third in the conference with a record of five wins to five losses.

This year P. H. S. organized a special intramural basketball program, initiated by Miss Singiser and Miss Miller. The participating girls were chosen by their athletic ability and willingness to spend long hours practicing. The girls, freshmen through seniors, comprised two basketball teams. Although each game was hard fought, the first team had only one win against four losses, while the second team compiled a two-three record. This experience is an introduction to the interscholastic program to begin next year.

P.H.S. has varied and extensive intramural sports programs for girls. The sports played and scheduled are all the splendid work of Miss Patricia Singiser. Teams compiled of senior high girls compete for the championship of each particular sport. Some of the sports include soccer, touch football, floor hockey, basketball, and volleyball. This year for the first time girls, active in the intramural program, were awarded trophies for excellence in a particular sport.

SENIOR BAND

Under the direction of Mr. Bruce Weaver the band completed another busy, but successful year. Starting in August, the band worked hard to perfect several drills, using, for the first time, a dance step to the tune of "Spanish Flea". After ten weeks, the band settled down to work on concert music. Highlights of the concert were "Fiddler on the Roof" and "Festive Overture". In spite of the hard work, there were moments of fun, including an exchange assembly, band day at Penn State, and a picnic. One of the last activities of the band was to play "Pomp and Circumstance" as the seniors left for the last time.

"—AND IT IS CHRISTMAS!" This year the Christmas concert began with a candlelight processional by the Girls' Chorus. The processional was effectively done with the girls singing their rendition of "It Came Upon A Midnight Clear". The Boys' Chorus portrayed the "Merriment of Christmas," singing such songs as "Sleigh Ride" and "Silver Bells", and dressed as toys, the senior ensemble sang "Toyland".

In the following months these groups prepared to make the spring concert "MUSIC FOR EVERYONE" a success. Depicting "Music Creates Harmony", the Boys' Chorus sang "Born To Be Free" and "Moon River". The Girls' Chorus Expressed the "Hopes And Dreams of Mankind" with "When You Wish Upon A Star", and the ensemble added variety with a dance performed while singing "Matchmaker".

VARSAITY CHOIR

DIRECTOR: Mrs. Phyllis Cobello

Music is a living part of Man, of his culture—Its creation—his inspiration. This was the part of the spring program, "Music for Everyone" that the Varsity Choir, under the supervision of Mrs. Phyllis Cobello, very ably depicted. For the first time the choir did a majority of their numbers unaccompanied. These included "Arise, O God, and Show Thy Might" and "Goin' Down Dat Lonesome Road." A medley of songs from "The King And I" was also sung, with Arlene Hitchman singing the introductory solo. The Varsity Choir did a magnificent job of concluding the Christmas concert by singing such numbers as "Alleluia! Christ Is Born", "All Roun' De Glory Manger", and as the finale "O Come All Ye Faithful" in which the audience participated by singing the last stanza.

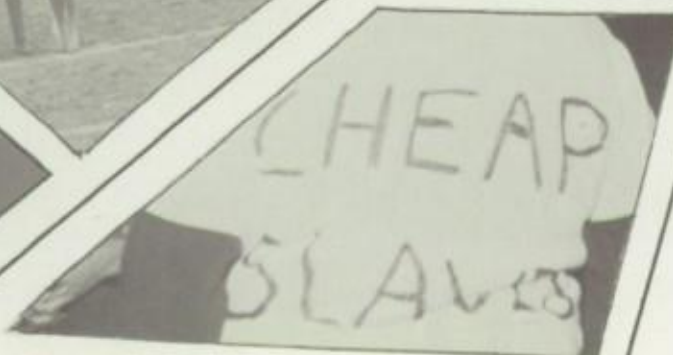

This year the choir also returned Milton Hershey's assembly by traveling to their school in April with the Junior Girls' Ensemble and the Senior Girls' Ensemble rounding out the program.

The year was completed when the seniors of Varsity Choir sang "Let There Be Peace On Earth" at their Commencement and the Senior Ensemble sang "The Impossible Dream".

SOPHOMORE—JUNIOR TRI-HI-Y

The Sophomore—Junior Tri-Hi-Y, under the leadership of Mrs. Linda Good, contributed greatly to the welfare of the community this year. A fashion show, entitled, "Spring Fever", was sponsored by the club. The girls modeled the fashions and the proceeds went to the March Of Dimes Fund.

The Hi-Y this year also took part in many activities for the good of the school and community. One of these was the campaign for muscular dystrophy which proved to be a huge success.

FTA

The Future Teachers of America concentrated its efforts this year on a field trip to West Chester State College. Through the sale of school record books and bake sales the club earned the funds for the trip.

In addition to this, the members of the F.T.A. initiated a Teacher Recognition Day. On this day the teachers, given special consideration, were presented with white carnations.

Although it is only in its second year of existence, the Library Club has already proven to be a success. The members are given an opportunity to better understand the work which is needed to run an efficient library. In addition to their regular meetings, the members held a Christmas party and later went on a trip to Drexel Institute.

F.H.A.

The primary purpose of the Future Homemakers of America Club is to equip the participating young women for their roles as future homemakers.

This year the county F.H.A. rally was held at P.H.S. and the necessary preparations kept the girls busy.

The Future Nurses of America Club began the school year with the installation of officers. Programs for the Club were presented by speakers from various medical professions. A sub sale was held to finance a trip to Abington County Hospital and Hahnemann Hospital in Philadelphia. A Mother-Daughter picnic was held at the home of Mrs. Beard to conclude the year's activities.

The French Club had a very successful second year under the direction of Mrs. Pertusio. Some of the activities of the club included a dinner, held annually and served in a French atmosphere, and a bake sale, the proceeds of which went toward buying materials for the French room.

Under the supervision of its advisor, Mr. Loy, the German Club concentrated its efforts toward the spring field trip to Washington, D.C. A sub sale and bake sale highlighted the club's fund raising projects. The members of the club visited the Capitol, Arlington Cemetery, and the Washington Monument as well as the German Embassy.

BUSINESS CLUB

The Business Education Club once again had a successful year. The members were given a better understanding and knowledge of the many aspects in the world of business. At their monthly meetings, lectures were presented by people associated with various business firms. Senior members also gained experience by doing different jobs such as duplicating and typing for certain clubs and individuals in our community.

MATH CLUB

The Math Club spent many of its meetings preparing for the annual mathematics test which was given on March 10, 1967, here at P.H.S.

As a project for the year, the group traveled to the Mechanicsburg Naval Supply Depot to visit its vast computer installation. Prior to the trip, Mr. Henriksen, an employee of the installation spoke to the club about the principles and methods by which the computers operate.

HIGH TIMES

Our monthly school newspaper, the High Times, has once again succeeded in reporting all the important school news to the students. Under the expert leadership of Kathy Bomgardner, Editor-in-chief, and a hard working staff, composed of students from the senior high, an excellent newspaper was produced, which was enjoyed by all the students of Palmyra High.

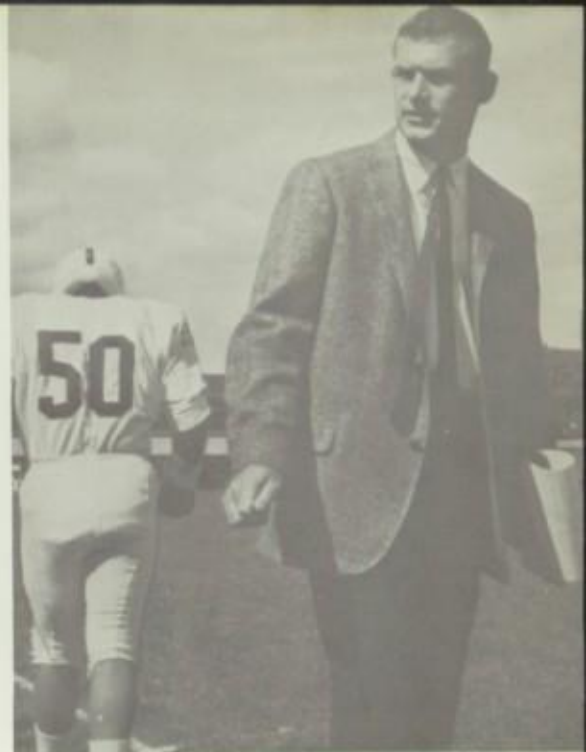

Among the many articles which were included in every edition of the paper were sports, personal opinion columns, "Snooper", humor, club news, and items to keep us abreast of the happenings at PHS.

PARENT'S DAY

The second annual Parent's Day, sponsored by the Student Council, proved to be a huge success once again. The main purpose of this day is to recognize the parents of the P.H.S. gridders. In pre-game ceremonies the players and their parents were introduced while eager fans looked on. In the well-fought game vs. Red Land, the gridders displayed their might before their parents.

This year, members of the senior class presented a three act comedy by Robert St. Clair, entitled "Comin' Round the Mountain." It was performed to a full house on March 10 and 11. The play was a big success due to the combined efforts of the class, Miss Reinard, the play's director, and other members of the faculty who helped with tickets, programs, and the much needed stage art work.

The audience was kept in laughter with the antics of Ego, the chicken, Dizzy Mae, and her invisible "bar", and Paw's troublesome suspenders.

NIGHT OF ARABIAN SPLENDOR

The theme for the 1967 Jr.-Sr. Prom was "An Arabian Night". The Juniors spent long hours planning and preparing for this event and devoted much of Friday and Saturday for final decoration. Upon arriving and entering the oasis, one was immediately transported to the romantic age of Ancient Arabia. The effect was magnified by a wishing well, a large Arabian mural and several flying carpets. Perhaps the biggest attraction, though, was the cave with its unique fortune teller. It all added up to a magnificent evening.

VESPER SERVICE

For the class of 1967, the excitement of graduation began on Sunday, May 28, with our Vesper Service. The day was warm and beautiful and this was reflected by the elated spirits of we seniors. As the processional began, we solemnly marched to our seats in an auditorium filled with our parents and friends. Music for the occasion was magnificently performed by a Junior Mixed Ensemble. We heard the sermon spoken by Dr. C. N. Hostetter, Jr. After the benediction we joyously marched out, one step closer to our Commencement.

Monday, May 29, will always be remembered by the class of 1967, for it is the day of our high school graduation. Nervously awaiting the opening strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" we realized our high school days were coming to a close. We proudly marched in and took our places before the platform, anxiously anticipating the climactic moment. After a vocal selection by the Mixed Ensemble, "Let There Be Peace On Earth", The Rev. Harry T. Richwine, pastor of the Salem Lutheran Church in Lebanon, spoke on the topic, "Putting 'U' in Success". Then the Senior Girls' Ensemble presented their final number, "The Impossible Dream." After this came the long awaited presentation of diplomas. After all 179 of us had marched to the platform, and received our diplomas and red rose, we joined in singing the Alma Mater. With mixed emotions we marched out as alumni of Palmyra Area High School.

REFLECTING

Time, constantly moving forward—steadily and with no deviation, has brought questions into the minds of men for thousands of years. The reason perhaps may be that man can sense no physical aspect to the concept of time. Man can only be certain of the present, he has no means of sensing the past or the future except through his and others reflections and anticipations.

A civilized society cannot exist without its recorded reflections and neither can an individual, but nor can one live solely in these reflections. One must be able to cope with the present and look to the future with hope. In the same way one cannot sit and dream about the past, but must be willing to contribute his utmost to the creation of a hopeful future.

Now as members of the class of 1967 we are acutely aware of all three aspects of time; the present graduation excitement, the worries about what the future holds in store for us, and the memories of the past that we will carry with us and reflect upon for the rest of our lives.
